

Books for developing a growth mindset in Foundation Stage, Key Stage 1 and Key Stage 2.

Author	Title	ISBN	Information
	Turbo- Racing team	978-1-444-91438-2	The story of the film of the snail that aspired to be the fastest snail in the world.
Ashley, Bernard	Cleversticks	978-0006-638-551	A delightful story that explores learning how we can learn to be successful at different things.
Beaty, Andrea	Rosie Revere Engineer	978-1419-708459	Fantastic book for breaking down stereotypes, as the girl tries to be an engineer. She has a "fantastic first try' and learns to persevere.
Cole, Babette	Three Cheers for Errol	978-0749-701970 (This book is currently out of print but second hand copies can be purchased.)	The story of a rat that perseveres, trains hard and overcomes adversity in sport.
Foltz Jones, Charlotte	Mistakes that worked	978-0-385-32043-6	This non-fiction book explores forty well-known inventions and the true story of how they came to exist.
Hood, Susan	Rooting for you	978-14231-52309	A tiny seed that is afraid to come out goes on a journey and grows as he overcomes his fears.

Maier, Inger	When Lizzy was afraid of trying new things.	1-59147-170-2	This book explores worries and encourages children to try new things. A great book for younger children.
McCully Arnold, Emily	Mirette on the High Wire	978-06981-14432	An enchanting picture book that looks at challenging oneself and trying again.
Moses, Brain Gordon, Mike	William Worrydactyl	978-0-7502-8023-5	This lovely book explores how the dinosaur worries about everything. It provides strategies to overcome worries and is great for young children.
Moss, Marissa	Regina's Big Mistake	978-0-395-70093-8	A delightful story that examines how we feel when we make mistakes. This book encourages creativity and being a unique learner.
Deak, JoAnn	Your fantastic elastic brain	978-0-9829938-0-4	A non-fiction book that explains using great illustrations, in a child friendly way, how the brain works. Also available as an app for I-pad.
Pett, Mark and	The girl who	978-1-4022-	A really useful

Rubinstein, Gary	never made mistakes	5544-1	story book for exploring the other aspect of having a fixed mindset where a child perceives itself to be clever and never wants to make a mistake.
Raschka, Chris	Everyone can learn to ride a bicycle	978-0-375-87007-1	Fantastic story about the learning journey of a child trying to ride her bike without stabilisers. Great for encouraging children to be persistent and try again after making a mistake. Lovely illustrations.
Reynolds, Peter	Going Places	978-1-44246-608-1	A great story about being unique and thinking creatively. The story encourages children to not compare themselves to others and be on their own journey
Reynolds, Peter	The dot	978-1-84428-169-5	Story about a child who believes she can't draw who has a teacher that encourages her to start with a dot and see what happens.
Reynolds, Peter	Ish	978-1-84428-296-8	Ramon loves to draw but is upset when his brother criticises his drawings. So he stops drawing until he is encouraged by his sister to draw something ish!

Spinella, Eileen	Someday	978-0-8037-2941-4	This delightful story inspires children to think about what they can do someday.
Thomas, Pat	I can do it!	978-0-7502-7140-0	A great picture book for younger children to encourage them to persevere and learn to do new things.